

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA : Hon. Jose L. Linares
v. : Cr. 07-599
LEE HOLLAND : ORDER

The defendant having been sentenced in October 2007 to a year and a day imprisonment, a $3,000 fine, and two years supervised release as a consequence of his conviction for corrupt solicitation in connection with a local government transaction in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 666(a)(1)(B) and 2; and the defendant having completed his term of imprisonment and approximately one year of supervised release; and the defendant having submitted a letter to this Court on October 5, 2009 requesting early termination of his supervised release; and the Government having replied to the submission on October 22, 2009; and the Court having considered 18 U.S.C. §§ 3583(e)(1), 3564(c), and 3553(a) in light of these submissions; and there not appearing to be any exceptional circumstances that might justify early termination of the defendant's term of supervised release;

IT IS on this 12th day of November, 2009,

ORDERED that the defendant's request for early termination of his term of supervised release is denied; and ORDERED that the defendant shall be continued on supervised release with the current conditions until the termination date of his supervised release.
